Paul Summerville

and The Society's Annual General Meeting and Dinner

Monday, November 21, 2011

Please join us at our Dinner and Annual General Meeting on Monday, November 21, 2011 at The Vancouver Club, 915 West Hastings, Vancouver, BC. Dress is business attire. After our brief AGM, guest speaker, Paul Summerville, will make a presentation entitled "Churchill and Social Justice".

Paul Summerville was born in Britain and has lived, studied and worked in Canada, Israel, Switzerland, Japan, and the United States. A Senior Fellow at the Centre for Global Studies at the University of Victoria, British Columbia, Paul has held senior positions as an economist, equity research director, and Asian regional head at several prominent global investment banks in Tokyo, Toronto, and Boston.

Paul ran for the NDP in the Federal Election of January 2006 in the riding of St. Paul's finishing third. He completed a Ph.D. from the University of Tokyo (1988) with a thesis on the Japanese automotive industry, and also studied at universities in Toronto, Jerusalem, Edmonton, Geneva, and Osaka.

In his years in investment research he developed a differentiated approach to thinking about how economies worked by analyzing countries in terms of the interconnection between the economy, politics, and culture. Paul is contemplating the future of Canada as an exemplar of modern social democracy a topic that shapes his website www.excellentfuture.ca and is writing a book entitled 'The Invisible Hand of Social Justice'. Paul is the President of the Sir Winston Churchill Society of Vancouver Island. Paul, unlike Winston, likes to golf.
